

ILC Workshops Thursday Sept 28

	ILC Workshops	Presenters	Format	Learning Objectives
Session 1, Thursday Sept 28, 8:00am - 8:50am	Time Overview: Basic Science and Biology of ILC AND Clinical Consideration of Primary/Early Stage ILC	Steffi Oesterreich, PhD - LEAD, Patrick Derksen, PhD, Cathrin Brisken, MD, PhD, Jacqueline Jeruss, MD, Rachel Jankowitz, MD, Lori Petitti, Claire Turner, Patient Advocates	40 minute panel followed by 10 minutes Q&A	Discuss the basic biology of ILC including histology, pathology, and subtypes. The unique aspects of hormone receptor status in ILC. Local therapy/surgery and systemic therapy. Challenges/hurdles of treating ILC.
Session 2 Time 8:55am - 9:45am	Metastatic ILC: State of the Art Current Treatment Strategies, Imaging and Translational Science	Julia Levine LEAD and Patient Advocate, Nikoo McGoldrick, Gwen Manchion Patient Advocates, Megan Kruse MD, Gary Ulaner MD, Adrian Lee PhD	40 minute panel followed by 10 minutes Q&A	The Metastatic ILC Patient Experience, Clinical Considerations, Unique aspects of PET Imaging and Translational Science in Metastatic ILC. Whats new on the Horizon.
BREAK 9:45 - 10AM
Session 3 Time 10:05am - 10:45am	Progress in ILC Advocacy	Laurie Hutcheson- LEAD and Patient Advocate, Rita Mukhtar MD, Christine Desmedt PhD, Tracy Cushing, Tone Lien, Julia Levine, Patient Advocates	30 minute panel followed by 10 minutes Q&A	Learning from experienced advocates. Types of advocacy. How to initiate outreach, education and research advocacy in your community. Working with institutions and organizations to broaden education.
Session 4 Time 10:50am - 11:35am	Communications and Social Media: Communication Tips, Telling your story and more	Diane Mapes -LEAD and Patient Advocate, Matt Sikora PhD, Thijis Koorman PhD, Colleen Fitzwater, Yen Lam, Christine McKay, Siobhan Freeney, Myiesha Gibson, Patient Advocates	35 minutes panel followed by 10 minutes Q&A	Social media savvy and online communication. Reliable resources. Who/what to follow in ILC. Avoiding misinfo. How to effectively share your story to raise awareness and educate.